DAILY CHECKLIST

People that devote their lives to divine connection with the infinite universe are creating a dialogue and constantly keeping it open between the infinite universe and us.

This is a conduit so the universal intelligence can give instruction, then this instruction is consciously and subconsciously shared, not only with the individual but also any living thing on the planet, as we are all connected and in communication at all times and we share all the information

Having a great idea or being a charismatic visionary leader is "time telling." "Building a company that can prosper far beyond the presence of any single leader and through multiple product life cycles" is "clock building."

Core Ideology = Core Values + Purpose

Core Values

- The organization's essential and enduring tenets—a small set of general guiding principles; not to be confused with specific cultural or operating practices; not to be compromised for financial gain or short-term expediency.

Purpose

- The organization's fundamental reasons for existence beyond just making money—a perpetual guiding star on the horizon; not to be confused with specific goals or business strategies.

The big 4 concepts to remember

- 1. Be a clock builder—an architect—not a time teller.
- 2. Embrace the "Genius of the AND."
- 3. Preserve the core/stimulate progress.
- 4. Seek consistent alignment.

It's technology married with liberal arts, married with the humanities, that yields us the results that make our heart sing.

If I had an hour to solve a problem I'd spend 55 minutes thinking about the problem and 5 minutes thinking about solutions.

Empathy

We will truly understand their needs better than any other company.

Focus

In order to do a good job of those things we decide to do we must eliminate all of the unimportant opportunities.

Impute

People DO judge a book by its cover.

We may have the best product, the highest quality, the most useful software etc.; if we present them in a slipshod manner, they will be perceived as slipshod; if we present them in a creative, professional manner, we will impute the desired qualities.

Permission to explore & be creative & responsibility to evolve

The universe appears to be 13.8 billion years old
Earth 4.5 billion years old

In a half a billion years the sun will expand & make life impossible on earth

Which means if it would have taken consciousness 10% longer to evolve, it would have never evolved at all
I wonder how many worlds out there never made it off their planet before the inevitable happens everyone you love, everyone you know, everyone you ever heard of, every human being who ever was, lived out their lives.

On this dot...

Our posturing's, our imagined self-importance, the delusion that we have some privileged position in the universe, are challenged by this point of pale light.

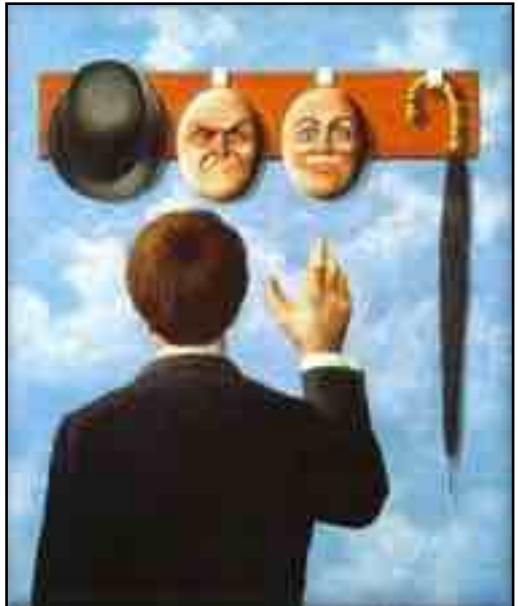

Organization of the mind = Unity of the mind = Level of development

Networks & Hierarchies

Networks & Hierarchies

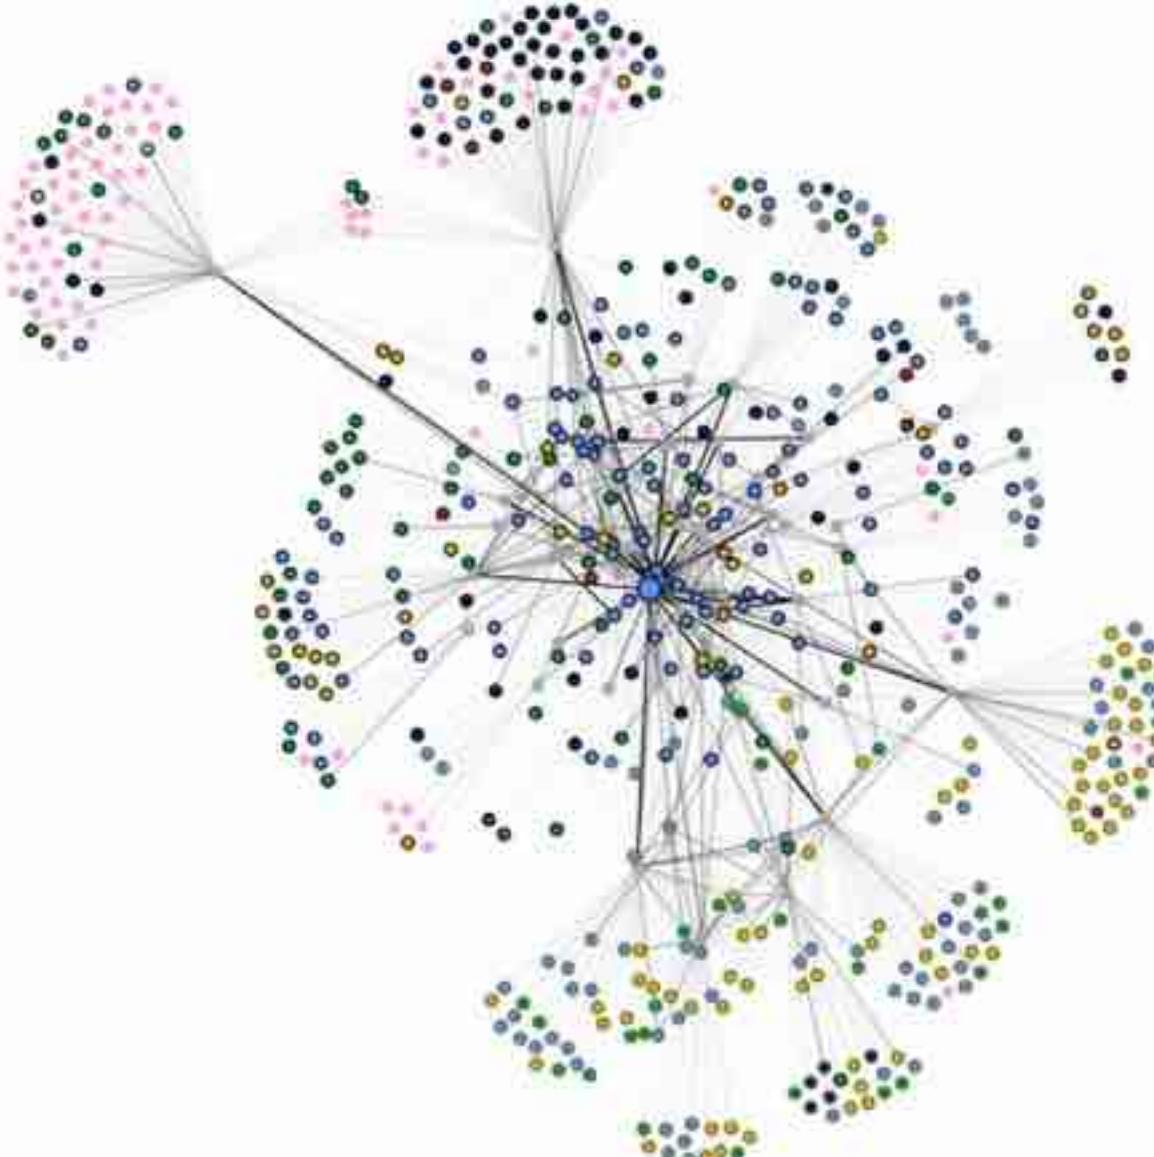

Life Cycle of Networks to Hierarchies

- 1 - Individual nodes connect with other individual nodes
- 2 - The larger cluster of nodes that are more networked attract a disproportionate amount of additional new nodes.
- 3 - The nodes either self-organise or are organized into a form of hierarchy.
- 4 - This hierarchy could be a growth hierarchy or a power hierarchy or a hybrid of both.
- 5 - Hierarchies in their very early stages encourage & embrace the entrepreneurial spirit of the networks by adopting good ideas, and conversely ejecting the bad ideas.

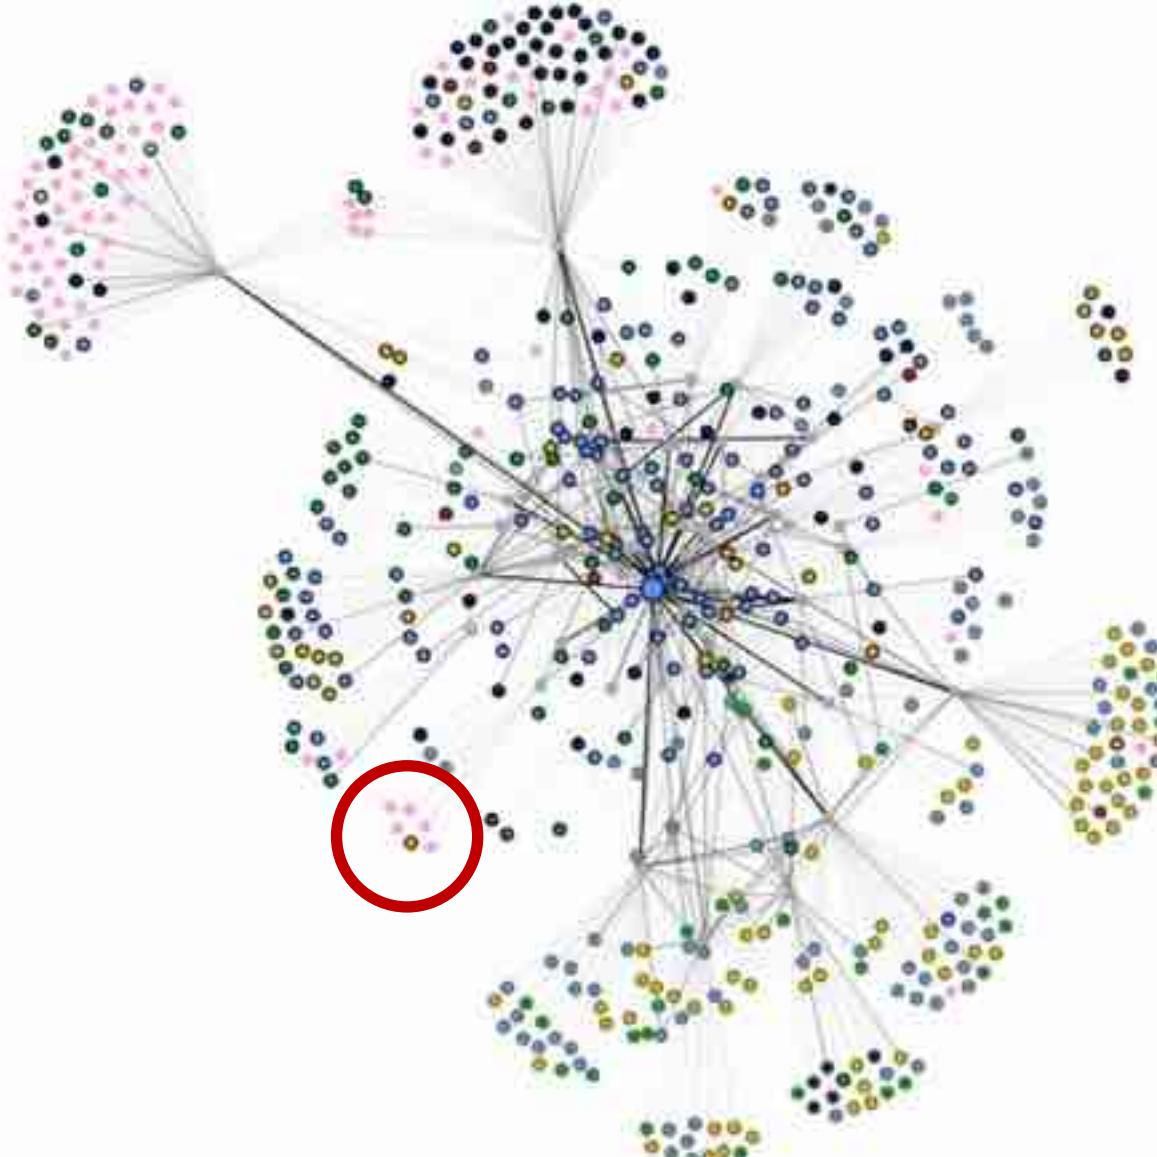

Note - Hierarchies also allow the most efficient allocation of the resources for these initiatives to be employed

- 7- The larger a hierarchy grows, the less efficient its communication with the original networks. Thus, there are less new & innovative ideas.
- 8 - Through a combination of less experimental growth & older generational thinking, the hierarchy is doomed to be superseded by the new generation of networks & hierarchies.
- 9 - This is true of any power hierarchy, whereas a growth hierarchy can be set up to have a relationship with networks, to infuse it with relevant evolutionary growth to remain relevant & grow into the future.
- 10 - The key is to keep constant balance where both the network & the hierarchy can co-exist so both attributes of each structure can be complemented with each other in a symbiotic mutual beneficial relationship.

Selecting the game is more important than how we play it

- Important things to consider...
 - Be as close as a central point of a network as possible
 - Have as many nodes connected to you as possible
 - Engage with these nodes in high quantity & quality state
 - It is important to dive deep with node concentrate, but also occasionally get a higher view to see how the network mapping has changed – You may want to maneuverer strategically to another area
 - Rinse & repeat

Integrating evolution

Individual Nodes (Random Growth)

- Premise - Nodes interact with
 - The immediate environment surrounding it...
...essentially creating a feedback loop based on direct contact.
 - Conclusion - Evolution moves forward as a result of individual nodes, is a result of random lottery evolution progression.
 - Velocity – Low velocity movement
 - Short Term Error Rate (as compared to Velocity rate) - High Error
 - Long Term Error Rate (as compared to velocity rate) – High Error
 - Efficiency – Slow progress

Integrating evolution

Networking Nodes (Interconnected Growth)

- Premise – Nodes interact with
 - The immediate environment surrounding it...
 - Other Nodes that also interact with the environment surrounding it...
...essentially, they connect, teach & learn with each other
 - Conclusion – As the feedback loop is dynamic in nature & grows exponentially, evolution moves forward exponentially. The feedback loop flows both ways in a dynamic movement.
 - Velocity – High velocity movement
 - Short Term Error Rate (as compared to velocity rate) – Medium Error
 - Long Term Error Rate (as compared to velocity rate) – Low Error
 - Efficiency – Fast progress

Integrating evolution

Hierarchical Nodes (Top-down structured Growth)

- Premise – Nodes interact with
 - The immediate nodes above it in the hierarchy
 - Nodes do not have a feedback loop with the environment surrounding them...
...essentially, cells are a conduit for the information above them
 - Nodes implement action based on direction from the Node at the top of the hierarchy
 - This systems direction is a result of feedback loops from recommendations from other hierarchical structures & established conservative structures.
 - Conclusion – As the feedback loop is conservative & selective in its implemented action, it has a steady direction in moving forward, conversely it is comparatively static in nature, resulting in slow evolutionary change. The feedback loop flows one way in this static movement.
 - Velocity – Medium velocity movement
 - Short Term Error Rate (as compared to velocity rate) – Low Error
 - Long Term Error Rate (as compared to velocity rate) – Medium Error
 - Efficiency – Medium progress

Integrating evolution

Formed opinions based on theory

- Networking Nodes survive at a higher rate by having a higher velocity & a lower long term error count.
 - High Velocity translates to High pivot actionality - Filtering bad from good ideas & then actioning good ideas quickly increases velocity

Principles to employ for Networking Nodes

- Increasing velocity results in the lowest amount of long term error & increases efficiency/longevity/relevance
 - The larger the network & the higher the bandwidth to each network increases velocity
 - The more nodes involved within a closed loop hierarchy slows or stagnates velocity
 - In order to thrive & keep its resources strong, it is important Networking nodes identify its waste (irrelevant ideas), then eject them promptly, consequently discovering & actioning its relevant ideas at a faster rate.

What is the definition of Enlightenment?

Enlightenment is defined as a union of emptiness in form

Enlightenment is defined as a union of emptiness in form

Emptiness –We find a radical freedom in, because, when we find emptiness, we find no thing that we can be identified with, and therefore, no thing that can hurt us, or harm us, or terrorize us, or torture us. We find a pure radical freedom, we have great liberation, which is what you find with enlightenment

Fantasy & imagination creates our reality...

Our mind must clearly see what it is we are to do, then the mind extrapolates all the necessary ingredients from the world around us, shifting and morphing it, until our fantasy & imagination is our reality.

This new reality becomes our new base line, so we can again release our fantasy & imagination, to bring the internal into the external.

Your imagination is walking around in everyone else's imagination

1. Your imagination creates your reality
2. Everything in biology uses imagination that manifests reality (from grass to trees, insects to mammals)
3. Billions of years has resulted in our inherited reality, based on DNA & behaviour passing down reality manifested from reality
4. The entire world is a construct of a tangible substance we exist in & move in that is a result of 4.6 billion years of manifested reality, born from imagination, thus time does not effect the result of our reality. It is here & we are swimming around in it.

Take away

- There is power in, knowing the tangible things that serve our focus & motion us to move forward
- There is more power in fully accepting, and thus "knowing" the intangible things that are not proven, when they serve our focus & motion us to move forward in a force of good

Our beliefs create the world around us. With action extending from our beliefs it creates the physical world that reflects these beliefs. Think of the fences that divide your home from your neighbours. This line is also a barrier to the beliefs of those who reside in it. If your beliefs are shared with others, which go over these boundaries, it will affect the beliefs and consequently the actions, and consequently the reality of others.

1 - People - Engage with creative, well thought out, driven individuals.

2 - Technology - Lean forward, Innovate, invent & sought out windows that serve our well thought out vision of the future.

4 - Be good Do Good - We engage in bringing enlightenment to ourselves, others, the larger community & a global scale.

5 - Stakeholders - Our stakeholders are our family, we treat them as you treat your brother, sister, mother, father,

6 - Imagination – Be systematically outrageous, breaking paradigm's with big ideas. What if?

7 - Evolution - Continuous innovation.

9 - Own it - With care express our individuality through our work.

10 – Independent thought – Act on important truth's we believe in, even if few people agree

11 - Waste not want not

12 - Momentum - Moving on down the highway.

13 - Truth - The mining of gold is through principled confrontation.

14 - Creating value – Service through evolving infrastructure gives us the gas to continue evolving.

Bonus thoughts

Ego to Hierarchy & Soul to Network

- Premise - Ego to Hierarchy - When dealing with hierarchies, ranging from a sliding scale of a growth hierarchy to a power hierarchy, the ego is evolved & trained to work within the hierarchy structure. An ego either enables or denies a node above to conform within the hierarchy, to a varying degree. Thus depending on the sophistication & resilience of the ego, it allows a node varying degree's of free flowing movement through the hierarchy. Souls within hierarchies, especially those hierarchies more on the power hierarchy side, are typically blocked within this more structured, pre-mapped out system.
- Premise - Soul to Network - When dealing with networks, the soul is naturally aligned. This encourages free flowing movement through the network. The soul is more likely to be accepted & nurtured. Alternatively, If the ego is introduced into the network, it restricts its movement & stagnates its growth, through natural blockages in this more organic freedom of choice system.

The order of everything

The order of everything

- Step 1 - Look at an apple. What is the order & structures that the apple represents for it to be in your hand. , , , the apple being transported to the boxing station, the apple being picked from the tree, the tree being sprayed with pesticide repellent, the seed being planted, the soil being turned.

The order of everything

- Step 2 - Premise - All order & hierarchy of everything aligns itself with a natural order that is the most efficient path & is constantly tested in a positive/negative feedback loop that allows the path to grow or fade based on this feedback. There are existing paths that are replicated & completely new paths that are created, with the new paths that grow, also being replicated, all in this feedback loop. It is like a living system constantly improving & growing to open up the ever increasing potential of connection.

- Metaphor example - Imagine a giant lake running through the land being the flow of the order & hierarchy of anything and everything. This is the source of all that is needed to survive & flourish. The lake moves fast & the edge of the lake is dangerous and can not be accessed easily. Channels are dug to allow the lake to fill into these channels, giving access to its source more easily, the larger & further the channels are dug, with constant maintenance & care allows the source to be accessed by more, often others form channels from these channel. Earthlings DNA are simply a map that has hierarchy or order embedded in it, that give passed imbedded knowledge that combines with infinite amount of new and learned techniques being copied, invented & improved upon to achieve success in creation of the ever growing channels. Sometimes a new source is found with another lake or a spring that creates new opportunities for access to the source, in these areas there is less existing infrastructure and more opportunity to form channels. Although it seems like a competitive environment there is an underlining goal of creating stronger & wider access to the source for all. Although there are failing & succeeding channels, it is constantly growing and always is stronger than before as a whole.

The order of everything

- Step 3 - Premise - The source is a metaphor for ultimately what supports life in all its forms. Light is the currency of everything - Money is stored light
- The source - Ultimately the source of life comes from what is left from the creation of energy from the big bang. And has been ordered & given hierarchy, resulting in having structure, through billions of years of evolution, resulted from this universes perceived laws of physics. A couple of the known structured holding areas for this energy is the sun & the heat from the earth's core. In addition to the energy the earth generates at its core, the earth receives energy from the sun in the form of light. Everything alive has these as its root sustenance. Light gives force for the nutrients in the soil. Light gives force for the apple seed to grow, thus light is the ultimate source for all which feed from the fruits, vegetables, sea weed, and all that feed from the earthlings to survive.

The order of everything

- Step 4 - We create spiderwebs that capture light

The order of everything

- Step 4 - We create spiderwebs that capture light

- The limitations we have depending on our species determines the complexity of how we are equipped to receive light. A plant simply uses the nutrients from the ground, the natural elements in its immediate surroundings & the sun light directly from the source. This is the simplest form of light collecting. The plant has chosen an efficient form of collecting light, which results in less cognitive requirement, and results in a slower evolutionary change, which gives a higher probability of vulnerability of long term survival for a particular species. Some earthlings lives on this earth are more complex in nature when navigating through it. Some can be very complex in nature. Think of humans for example. The rich, multi layered, wide array of strategic techniques, coupled with a networking effect of cooperation. All with the intent of capturing light from the web they weave. These webs can be very complex in nature, and just like a spiders web, are constantly weathered and often re-built to suit its surroundings and are constantly more complex and specialized for its niche and constantly growing in size. We are pre-disposed to have this connection with light, and it is the clue of our connection with the universe. This innate connection we have with the creation of the universe is deeply within us, It drives us in ways we don't understand, When we are aligned with it, we are fulfilling the purpose that is set in the fabric of existence. When we are completely open in our body, mind, heart, spirit, (and other levels we do not understand) then we are at one with the universe, this allows us to be connected on levels that gives complete power to the universe, which in term, gives complete power to ourselves as we are one and the same with the universe. Whether subconscious or conscious we are communicating with the whole universe at every moment. Our body, space & time has no limit on this connection, with the smallest atom and the furthest star and the entire universe in its infinite space, Within our own body we are the entire universe, & the entire universe is our body. Our bodies have immersed from the universes creation, effectively creating the universe inside the constructs of a body, to focus the universe onto a path the universe/we choose, There is no greater gift than to realize this connection. Feel it and focus it and be it.

Sight impairs our vision

Sight impairs our vision

- It could be argued, that because we see with our eyes, it forms a vision of 'reality' that is limited by this narrow evolutionary creation. Thus, we tend to over-rely on this in our lives, to the point we mistakenly see it as reality. Perhaps what we see, is at least, such a small infinitesimal piece of reality, or at most, it is not reality at all, and sight impairs us seeing what is really true and real behind its mask. This could also be said with our other senses.

This could also be said with our other senses.*
- Now think of other entities that have a different set of evolutionary creations. For example, Trees, they have no sight, they have no hearing. What sense of 'reality' do they perceive? Then to take it further, perhaps there are many layers of reality, some of which are right in front of us. They pass us by because of our limited evolutionary gifts. Perhaps there is a form of consciousness, deep inside the smallest of atoms, or in the largest of galaxy's, that we simply don't have the tools to be able to begin to acknowledge.

Sight impairs our vision

- It could be argued, that because we see with our eyes, it forms a vision of 'reality' that is limited by this narrow evolutionary creation. Thus, we tend to over-rely on this in our lives, to the point we mistakenly see it as reality. Perhaps what we see, is at least, such a small infinitesimal piece of reality, or at most, it is not reality at all, and sight impairs us seeing what is really true and real behind its mask. This could also be said with our other senses.

- The first step is to acknowledge our very highly likely limitations, and to allow our minds and imagination, to break the barriers of our evolutionary tools we have been given, and begin to connect in new and original ways, in an exploratory path to create a higher awareness. If the universe has created us, to be able to learn from, and understand itself, then we have a responsibility, for those who are predisposed to having an innate ability to break through our current established awareness, and to embrace unconventional thoughts and practices, to expand our understanding of reality.

How does Ego relate to our understanding of reality?

What is an Ego?

What is reality

What is an Ego?

A construct by the mind to protect and defend our fragile self-image.

What is an Ego?

A construct by the mind to protect and defend our fragile self-image.

What is reality

A viewpoint, that predicts accurately the patterns in the world, in order to function in it.

Why we have created an ego?

Why we have created an ego?

Our self-image requires to be constantly reinforced with its conceptual understanding of the world, in order for us to have confidence to live in it.

Why we have created an ego?

How does the ego achieve this?

Everything that does not fit its understanding of the world is deflected. Like a mirror reflecting light, the ego acts the same, not allowing conflicting information through its defences.

It does have a one-way door that allows only the things that confirms the minds current values and beliefs.

Allow our ego to rest, and be completely open to the incoming information, resulting in the information being as unfiltered as possible as it comes through our senses.

Train our minds to have all its doors completely open, so it reaches all parts of our mind, and it can be interpreted with all facets of our imagination.

Engage the world with this understanding of reality, so it can be tested and validated, allowing it to be cycled over and over again for validation

Conclusion

Conclusion

When our paradigm thinking is working with our ego in power, our understanding of the world is not filling its potential for understanding of universal truth.

If we allow our ego to rest, and allow our soul in power, this opens our entire mind to consider a larger amount of possibilities, leading to evolution of our souls, this serves everything around us, and allows the universes mysteries to be uncovered. This fulfils our purpose in life.

Releasing control over your life and others in it

Releasing control over your life and others in it

- One should accept reality in its entirety.

Releasing control over your life and others in it

- One should accept reality in its entirety.
- One should embrace the power to influence using your core belief of what you hold as a universal truth. Also always be testing the contributing factors to reality, constantly updating our understanding of this reality. The important distinction is not having the control of anything, only the power to influence.

- In regards yourself & everyone you love, accept that death is a part of life. Death makes the fuel burn faster, so we feel/connect/contribute with all we have. We have the opportunity to treasure the experience of those we love, and also leave the world with no regret.

The reasonable man adapts himself to the world, the unreasonable one, persists in trying to adapt the world to himself.

Thus all progress depends on the unreasonable man.

The most a reasonable man can do, is take a great idea and make it good.

It is ok to be a man that has a vision that others don't understand at the beginning as these are the visions that make a big impact on the world.

An amazing product or service is a condensation of a spirit of the people that created it.

Your house should be made by its own needs.

To often, others houses are made by the need to impress.

The determining motive of your house is in the house, the determining of others is the audience.

There is more honour in defeat other than unused potential.

The future self is guiding and teaching my present self at all times.

Our soul is in the fourth dimension and is using our body and our ego with a remote control in the third dimension.

New universe in its third dimension is the playpen for us to explore ourselves and the environment.

If you consider the fourth dimension reality that means that the third dimension is not necessarily the primary reality, thus it is like a video game where you're there to play it, seemingly has certain rules and limitations, but with knowledge in place, you realise that it is programmed by our souls, and we are able to create and move the third dimension to our will, when you understand it is a malleable and flexible dimension

Certain men & women only learn the candle is hot, only after it burns them.

Knowledge often not something that can just be passed on.

Wisdom comes at a cost, & the cost is often pain.

You don't get what you want, you get what you are.

At your core being you are simply using all of your talents with all the tools you can find to stop entropy.

The better you do this, the more successful you are.

Sight, hearing, smell, feeling are all inventions.

Evolution has created countless random inventions, that only a small percentage of survive.

When looking at any problem consider...

What is crucial for survival.

What would happen if you eliminated doubt & fear from your life.

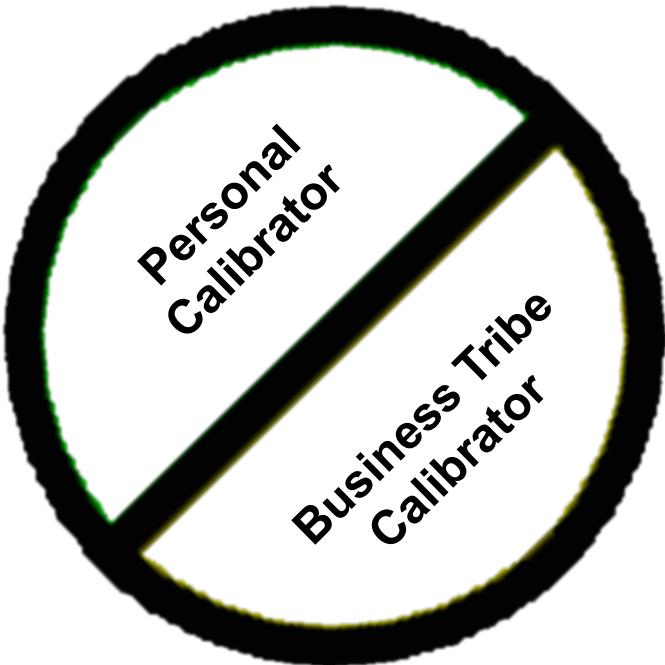

We need polymaths and pioneers who know that imagination thrives when sensual experience joins with reason, when illusions link to Reality, when intuition couples with intellect, when the passions of the heart unite with those of the mind, when knowledge gained in one discipline opens doors to all the rest.

My informing ourselves with a multi-dimensional perspective we will become much more aware, we will become much more effective, charismatic & interesting to other people. When you are aware of it & you get it, You don't need to talk about it so much that it confuses people, but if you ever flash it occasionally, that you know that this stuff is going on, It helps people see you have a higher vision for reality, themselves, their children & higher vision for everything they can do in their life

Fantasy & imagination creates our reality...

Our mind must clearly see what it is we are to do, then the mind extrapolates all the necessary ingredients from the world around us, shifting and morphing it, until our fantasy & imagination is our reality.

This new reality becomes our new base line, so we can again release our fantasy & imagination, to bring the internal into the external.

Your imagination is walking around in everyone else's imagination

1. Your imagination creates your reality
2. Everything in biology uses imagination that manifests reality (from grass to trees, insects to mammals)
3. Billions of years has resulted in our inherited reality, based on DNA & behaviour passing down reality manifested from reality
4. The entire world is a construct of a tangible substance we exist in & move in that is a result of 4.6 billion years of manifested reality, born from imagination, thus time does not effect the result of our reality. It is here & we are swimming around in it.

Take away

- There is power in, knowing the tangible things that serve our focus & motion us to move forward
- There is more power in fully accepting, and thus "knowing" the intangible things that are not proven, when they serve our focus & motion us to move forward in a force of good

Our beliefs create the world around us. With action extending from our beliefs it creates the physical world that reflects these beliefs. Think of the fences that divide your home from your neighbours. This line is also a barrier to the beliefs of those who reside in it. If your beliefs are shared with others, which go over these boundaries, it will affect the beliefs and consequently the actions, and consequently the reality of others.
